

Vocal Performance Class With Ren Geisick
Learn how to sing Blues, Jazz, Pop and Country
4-weeks - 75 minute class every Monday

You already have the curiosity about singing. Have you had plenty of time singing in the car? Probably a friend that has encouraged you along the way. It's time to try! Ren coaches you in a relaxed rehearsal environment. Learn and practice in small groups. You'll learn the fundamentals of breathing and phrasing, rehearsing with other musicians, song structure, chord progressions, and fronting the band.

Your coach Ren Geisick will guide you through basic Blues grooves are conversational and easy to sing. Even experienced vocalists benefit from Ren's performance coaching. You'll learn how to rehearse and communicate with any band.

Week 1: Fundamentals (breathing, warm-up, finding your keys)
A traditional Chicago Blues shuffle:
"Before You Accuse Me" – Bo Diddley
"Don't Mess With My Man" – Irma Thomas
Homework assignment- Swing shuffle

Week 2: Review fundamentals
Performance basics (posture, presentation, projection)
Homework rehearsal:
A swing shuffle:
"Fine and Mellow" – Eva Cassidy
"Rock Me Baby" - BB King
Performance review

Week 3: Review fundamentals
Performance basics
Rehearsal
Performance review

Week 4: On stage with your coach and backing band at the Poor House
Bistro! Invite your friends. All Welcome!

Our Vocal Performance Class is a 4-week course. The first 3 classes are interactive lessons and rehearsals. The 4th week, you perform together with Ren at the Poor House Bistro in San Jose.

Class and course materials $220.

Next 2016 class starts are Monday 1/18, 2/22, 3/21, 4/18, 5/23 and 6/20.

Be sure to ask about our advanced vocal class for more experienced performers.
Jazz, Pop and early Rock-n-Roll standards too!

info@kingamplification.com